Tasting Notes:

The 2016 Michael Pozzan Chardonnay is delicate and fine-boned Chardonnay highlighting the subtlety of the Russian River appellation. The nose is diaphanous with exotic jasmine notes and a touch of wet stone. The mouth is a complex layering of white peach, honeydew melon, and a hint of vanilla bean, with a lengthy finish reminiscent of creamy lemon curd. The wine is light and elegant, with a food-friendly acid that will make it a welcome addition to any bite.

Enjoy with an arugula salad with pancetta and goat cheese, dressed in a light citrus dressing
