Tasting Notes:

The Michael Pozzan 2023 Chardonnay has an expressive nose of mandarin oranges, asian pear, and golden delicious apple, with a touch of toasted marshmallow. On the palate, the wine is creamy and weighty, with flavors that match the aromas, plus creme brûlée and candied lemon peel. The wine's smooth mouth is perfectly balanced by a bright acidity that welcomes pairing with a wide variety of foods.

Enjoy this crowd winning Chardonnay with fresh shrimp scampi served with angel hair pasta and a spinach salad tossed with toasted almonds, oranges, and a citrus vinaigrette.
