Tasting Notes:

The 2014 Annabella Sonoma County Cabernet Sauvignon glows deep burgundy in the glass, with brilliant red undertones. The nose is bright with cranberry, red currant, and boysenberry, framed by delicate oak notes of nutmeg and vanilla. In the mouth, the wine is mouth-coating and rich, with flavors of chocolate-covered cherries and freshly roasted coffee supported by finely textured tannins. The finish is lightly smokey with the sweet char of toasted oak, and lingers well after the wine is gone.

Enjoy this easy-drinking Cabernet with braised beef short ribs with roasted carrots and herbed fingerling potatoes
