Tasting Notes:

The 2017 Giapoza Pinot Noir leads with a bright and extroverted nose of red plum and orange peel, with a hint of rose petal and subtle clove. In the mouth the wine shows broad silky tannins that reveal layered flavors of juicy raspberry, red plum, and the richly toasted spices of fine French oak. The lengthy finish shows nutmeg and vanilla.

Enjoy this rich Pinot Noir with pulled pork, slow-cooked with cinnamon and cumin, served with a smokey BBQ sauce and cornbread.
