Tasting Notes:

The 2014 Michael Pozzan Chardonnay is lightly colored in the glass. The inviting nose presents intriguing aromas of wet stone and white peach. The mouth is textured and layered, with flavors of apricots, mandarin oranges, and lemon curd intertwining with a delicate oak component that contributes vanilla and subtle brown sugar notes. The lovely balance in this wine would please both oaky Chardonnay lovers, and fruity Chardonnay lovers both.

Serve this wine with a garden greens salad with grilled peaches and blue cheese, or with baked ziti with sausage and roasted red peppers.
